NEW YORK, March 3.-Today's short session of the stock market was a most perfunctory affair. Wall Street was practically deserted and only the professional traders on the floor of the exchange kept up the semblance of trading. Improved traffic conditions and bet-ter weather are helping the steel trade, with a particularly keen demand for ship steel and pig iron. Railroad earnings in January were on the whole good, although some large systems like the Reading, for example, show a substantial decline in net. Atlantic Coast Line, Chicago and Northwestern, and others disclose gains in net for the month. There was some show of activity in securities following the report from Washington that no matter what hap-pened to the legislation still pending in Congress there wil be no extra ses sion before June. In the industrial list price advances ranged from one to three points, except in the case of certain specialties. Barrett Company was weak in the extreme on anouncement of an increase in capital

The copper stocks were in good de mand. United States Steel more than made up its dividend. The railroad list was little changed. New York Central and Reading were firm features. Sugar ismes were in fair de-mand on reports of heavy British buy-ing of sugar in Cuba. The commodi-ties markets were steady. London was quiet with a firmer tendency for consols. There was no fea-ture in the foreign exchange market save that Italian rates still holds the new low record of 7.76 established advances. The independent oil shares yesterday, a discount of more than 33

Exchange. NEW YORK, March 3 - There was a firm tone to the trading in the outside market this morning and busiadvances. The independent oil shares were firm and fairly active.

Firm Tone to Trading in Outside

The copper stocks were firm, and were led by Magma. Near the end of the first hour, however, they reacted and all of the early gains were lost The bonds were quiet and changes were unimportant. Texas & Pacific 1sts.

Prices Again Today Promptly Advance on New York Exchange. NEW YORK, March 3 .- The market again opened quiet and promptly advanced, as was the case yesterday. Values were easily raised and the supply of contracts has not been increased much on the last 100 point advance

Quite a little buying came from spot houses and Liverpool interests. The former were fixing prices for spinners, and it was also declared that there was more buying of futures for trade people who were impressed by the tenacious holding at the South and the comparatively low 214 prices of futures as compared with

At the advance profit-taking devel-oped for some of the recent commission house buyers. Part of this repre-sented week end evening of con-tracts. Much was heard in these quariers, however, of mills being active and of the probable arming of American vessels bringing about larger exports of American cotton. sion house buyers. Look for Dividend Increase.

It is understood that directors of Coaden Oil and Gas Company will act next week on the quarterly dividend, which is payable about March 20. While the amount to be declared is uncertain, the rate is likely to be increased. Earnings of the company are larger than ever before, and Justice 1988. tify a liberal division of profits with stockholders, it is said. or any rights to subscribe to the new stock, according to a statement made through Dow. Jones & Company. It is further stated that they will subscribe to every share of new stock to which they are entitled. Bethlehem issues have been weak recently on humors in Wall Street that Mr. Schwab and other officials were selling their holdings. or any rights to subscribe to the new ing their holdings.

Showed Hesitancy.

Regarding conditions in the tex-tiles and allied trades, the Dry Goods tiles and allied trades, the Dry Goods Economist says: Operators on a large scale who, necessarily, place contracts months shead of delivery showed a decidedly halting attitude even before the news of Germany's efforts to bring Japan and Mexico into an alliance against the United States. Unwillingness to commit themselves was equally clear this week on the part of large manufacturers and printers. On the other hand, the almost complete with hand, the almost complete with-drawal of buyers of women's gar-ments is attributed not to war pro-spects, but to the unusual extent of their early buying."

Regaining Caste.

Stocks of companies making muni-tions, which in recent months lost much casts owing to peace talk, are reported by brokers to be returning to favor among speculators. The is attributed to the increased probability that the United States may enter the war. Speculators also feel that any peace that will be decided upon in Europe will be an armed one. This. together with a belief that the United States will be a large purchaser of munitions because of its program of preparedness, are the arguments of-fered in favor of the munition com-panies and those industrial concerns

Switching From the Rhile.

Close observers of the ticker tape calls attention to the unusually lib-eral offerings of such high grade railroad shares yesterday as Chicago and Northwestern, Northern Pacific, and Baltimore and Ohio. These issues failed to show any weakness, and in fact were strong, but their strength was attributed to betterment in the general market. The oft repeated reason of foreign liquidation was offered in part for the sales, but in some quarters the selling was said to represent switching from the rails to the industrials on the theory that armed peace, or entrance of the United States in the war would mean a con-tinuation of the good demand for copper, steel, and munitions.

New York Central Earnings.

The roads included in the New York Central lines made further substantial improvements in gross operating revenues in the first month of the year, but most of them presented losses in net operating results and in net income, the reduction in the net being due to increased operating expenses and increased taxes. For instance, the New York Central show-ed an increase in gross of $1,012,818, but a decrease in net operating rev-enues of $822,113, operating expenses having increased $1,834,932. While the cost of operating the system was increased through adverse weather conditions, it is probable that the
